NRA Young Retailer of the Year

"Being part of the NRA Young Retailer of the Year Event was an amazing experience. Being recognised for my achievements was both a career and personal highlight that I will never forget..."
Rebecca Willet, 2009 NRA Young Retailer of the Year Winner

Applications for the NRA Young Retailer of the Year competition are open.

This annual event, established in 1973, endeavours to recognise and reward excellence amongst young Australian retailers under the age of 25 and promote retailing as a career path for young people. At NRA, we believe in supporting and investing in the future of the Australian Retail Industry and we invite your company to be involved.

This year, the Young Retailer of the Year Event will be held on Wednesday 28 July at the Sydney Harbour Marriott Hotel. The event will entail an informative and inspirational workshop in the morning, followed by a sit down lunch where the finalists will have the opportunity to do a presentation. The competition not only offers young retailers the chance to compete for the title Young Retailer of the Year, but the Winners will also be awarded a trophy and a cheque of $1,000.
