DIPLOMA IN RETAIL LEADERSHIP

This course reflects the role of individuals who manage a retail business, multiple retail stores or departments, following a business strategy to deliver profitable results for the organisation. These individuals support upper management and provide leadership to retail teams. They plan and evaluate their own work and of others, operating with autonomy and responsibility.

Why should I take this course?

This course is designed for individuals who work in a diverse range of retail settings and allows you to enhance and refine your existing management skills in the retail sector. It provides the knowledge required by those who hold or wish to hold higher management positions.

Who does this course target?

This course is designed for those who are providing support to upper management in a larger retail or wholesale outlet or who are responsible for managing a retail store or wholesale outlet. These individuals may look after a team and must understand the proper role of not just a manager, but a leader.

How will it be delivered?

The NRA Retail Institute tailors each course to the individual or company, ensuring the delivery method is designed to provide optimal learning for all individuals. This includes the flexible offering of online, in-person and blended courses.

How long is the course?

The duration of the course will vary depending on the method of completion and any funding program requirements that may apply. For example - a classroom-based program may take from 6 to 8 weeks; a traineeship program may take from 6 months to 2 years.

What jobs can this lead to?

Individuals with this qualification may be able to perform roles of similar nature to: retail buyer, merchandise planner, recruitment, budget manager, sales manager, area/regional manager. It can also lead to roles that manage large retails, business-to-business enterprises, or business-to-business outlets.

Are there any entry requirements?

Entry to this qualification is open to individuals who:

- have achieved a SIR40316 Certificate IV in Retail Management

or

- have relevant industry employment experience in a job role that has involved the application of skills and knowledge described in core units of competency from the SIR40316 Certificate IV in Retail Management.

A Language, Literacy and Numeracy [LLN] assessment is also required as part of the enrolment process. Where results show that additional support is needed, entry to the course will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

How am I assessed?

The assessment process will include the gathering of evidence to demonstrate the individuals' competence. The assessment requirements will be clearly advised at the beginning of each unit.

All required tasks must be completed to achieve competence within the specified unit.

What does the course cost?

Concession

$1,000.00

To find out if you or your staff are eligible for a lower course cost based on government subsidies, contact the NRA Retail Institute team for further information.

Non-Concession

$2,000.00

Our team are also able to check if you are eligible for other assistance programs and ensure you can be qualified at the most competitive price possible.
